If your definition of a "Bad Debt" in today's Journal is correct, what is an un-delivered bond?

16 PERISH IN FIRE THAT SWEEPS A HISTORIC HOSPITAL IN ROME

SCORES OF PATIENTS ARE SAVED

Panic Reigns and Shrieks of Sufferers Rend Air

HOME, May 18.—(By the Associated Press)—A disastrous fire swept the historic hospital of Santo Spirito, one of the most ancient and picturesque charitable institutions in Rome today. Scores of the patients isolated the second and third stories had been extricated from the burning institution at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning and includes a capital lunatic asylum, founded some and a refuge for aged infirm persons.

The fire broke out at midnight in the basement. At first it seemed insignificant but it spread rapidly to wards containing chronic sufferers or other patients who were seized with panic. The shrieks of the sufferers mingled with the crackling of the flames, while the atmosphere rapidly became dense with smoke.

Nurses and doctors cleared up the red-ragged scene, one ward after another, and three hours of patients crawled out. Neighboring firemen responded to the scene, but at the moment of arrival the electric lights were extinguished adding to the horror of the situation.

As the immense wavy beams of the hospital fell, there was a heavy grinding noise and the pavement collapsed burying 20 chronic patients and rendering access to the wards impossible.

Carabinieri, royal guards, nurses and doctors made heroic efforts to save the patients, rushing through the smoke and fire and bringing off 12, all of which however, were dead from suffocation. Several of the rescue parties perished in the flames. The two wards were destroyed but the firemen saved the other buildings.

Sixteen bodies already have been recovered. Four other patients were burned badly, and one dangerously injured.

The hospital of Santo Spirito is situated on the banks of the river Tiber not far from the Vatican grounds. It was founded by Pope Innocent IV in the 12 century, enlarged by Pope Gregory IX in the thirteenth and re-built under Sixtus V in the fifteenth. The site of the hospital, a chapel was dedicated to St. John the Baptist and reputed to be the only work of this artist in Rome.

Chicago Plans to Deliver Goods in Europe in a Week

CHICAGO, May 18.—Products manufactured in Chicago may be delivered in Europe in seven days if the race started today under the auspices of the Chicago Association of Commerce proves successful. It is hoped to establish a record for the fastest freight shipment from Chicago to Southampton, England, and to prove the necessity for a fast package freight service from here to Europe.

By use of a special forty-eight-hour freight train over the New York Central, a car loading arrangement in New York and the world's largest steamship, the majestic officials in charge hope to make the shipment in exactly one week. A. W. McLaren, traffic manager of Morris and company, is conducting the experiments.

The shipment left here at 12:30 p.m. today and the trip across the ocean will be started Saturday morning, scheduled to arrive England on Thursday.

FORD TRICKED INTO HIS ATTACK UPON THE JEWS

So Says Norman Hapgood Who Tells of Campaign

Special to The Herald

NEW YORK, May 18.—How Henry Ford was tricked into his campaign against the Jews by Tzarist sympathizers in the United States, and actually engaged the former Russian secret service Black Hand to investigate, Boris Brasol, and C. C. Daniels, a New York lawyer and brother of the former secretary of the navy, Josephus Daniels, as heads of his "Anti-Jew" campaign, is disclosed in a series of notes by Norman Hapgood, International, which appeared on the news stands today.

The articles, which protocol some decided sessions as to the peculiarities of the Ford genius, are supported by documents, photostatic copies of letters, records and statements of Ford executives showing that Ford's Anti-Jew campaign, once embarked upon, was conducted with thorough magnificence and thoroughness.

In outlining the reasons behind the publication of the articles, Mr. Hapgood declared:

"It is indeed bitter irony that in this land of liberty, the wealthiest man in the world should be found seeking to arouse racial hatred and fighting alongside agents of Tsarism in endeavoring to foment in the United States the same kind of persecutions which stained the pages of Russian history. That Mr. Ford's motives are good does not make the tragedy less."

Naturally to charge Ford with aiding Tsarist reactionaries is serious business; it will be upheld with abundant documentation. Ford does not deny these things. Outside of business where a genius, his mind is that of a child. But I believe that the latest excursion of his into the political field contains a very serious object lesson.

Henry Ford is the first of our very rich men to seek to employ his wealth in the field of politics, to set up his own independent agency. He has no large numbers of people to accept his own personal beliefs. Other men have justified the use of their money to philanthropy, health, and education, administered through colleges or foundations, under independent control.

Democracy can be as despotic as monarchies. The preservation of freedom means action, intelligence and active life. When men make no effort but that his wealth or position affords him support, he should support to the utmost his welfare. The resolution was drawn secretly by the students engaging in the political field contains a very serious object lesson.
